

LARRY & DWAIN SANDS

The father and son team of Larry and Dwain Sands have been entertaining throughout the province of Alberta for over 3 decades now, serving up their own brand of traditional country music laced with some old time rock 'n' roll.

The Innisfail duo has shared the stage with such Canadian greats as Gary Fjellgaard and Anita Perras, and continue to play to sold out concert halls in central and southern Alberta. Their unique humour and musical compatibility have served to make them crowd favourites wherever they perform.

Larry and Dwain have four albums to their credit including Me and My Dad, Out Behind the Barn, and This Ole House. They are currently promoting their latest CD New and Used.
